

Learn About LMU's Transfer Guarantee Program

Loyola Marymount University's Transfer Enrollment Services is dedicated to creating clear pathways for transfer student success. Our Transfer Guarantee Program is one way to achieve this. The program provides guaranteed admission for transfer students from certain California community colleges who meet specific eligibility requirements.

Eligibility Criteria

- Attend one of the following guarantee schools:

Cañada College	Los Angeles Southwest College
Cerritos College	Los Angeles Trade-Tech College
East Los Angeles College	Los Angeles Valley College
El Camino College	San Mateo College
Los Angeles City College	Santa Monica College
Los Angeles Harbor College	Skyline College
Los Angeles Mission College	West Los Angeles College
Los Angeles Pierce College

- Earn the minimum cumulative GPA as outlined in the agreement for your specific major
- Complete a minimum of 30 transferable units including any additional coursework as required by your major
- Submit your application and all required materials to LMU by the February 1 deadline
- Students under the Guarantee Program are only eligible for Fall admission

Please note that we do not offer guarantees for students interested in majors within the Seaver College of Science and Engineering, and the School of Film and Television.

Benefits

- Creates clear guaranteed pathway to admission at LMU
- Early review of your academic records
- Early admission notification
- Special invitation to transfer specific events on campus
- Access to guarantee academic advising
